VOL. LVII: NO. 21

REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, AUGUST 26, 1916.

ESTABLISHED, 1859

FOR U. S. SENATOR, WILLIS H. BOOTH, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

REASONS WHY BOOTH SHOULD WIN

Stand taken by San Mateo County Republican Committee Concerning Same

If Charles Evans Hughes is elected president, and he certainly will be, it will be absolutely necessary for him to have a majority of both houses of congress—with him to carry out his policies. There is scarcely any doubt but the lower house will be Republican but the senate is in doubt. There are only about twelve senators to be elected this year and the Republican party must elect nearly all of them to secure a majority. California must elect a Republican senator if it wishes to receive the benefits that will come through a stringent protective tariff which will be enacted and put into force shortly after Mr. Hughes is inaugurated. There is only one out and out Republican candidate for the United States Senate—Willis H. Booth of Los Angeles. The other candidate, Hiram W. Johnson, is not a Republican but a Progressive who is not in sympathy with the policies of the Republican party. He has not subscribed to the platform of that party and will not aid Mr. Hughes should he be elected. He has gone up and down this state denouncing the leaders of that party, he has done everything to destroy that organization. Under these circumstances he could not be loyal to Mr. Hughes or to his policies. Therefore it is incumbent on all loyal Republicans who believe in the success of the party to vote and work for the election of Willis H. Booth.

It is the duty of every Republican to take immediate notice of what the candidacy of Johnson and its supporters portend. The Republican party welcomes the return of every Progressive, as it has welcomed the return of Roosevelt. But singlehanded it has fought the good fight for its principles and its existence against all the efforts of those same Progressives to destroy it. And in California, no more than in Chicago, will it at this time put those Progressives in the seats of power. It knows what they have done in the past, it fears what they may attempt in the future.

So aside from the shame of the great Republican State of California, should it have for its Senators one Democrat and one partyless filibuster the national consequences may be grave. Conceding the election of Mr. Hughes, he cannot give the nation the benefit of Republican policies unless strongly supported in both houses of Congress. The Senate will be very close. There is an imperative need, which every Republican should realize, of electing a staunch and true Republican to uphold the President, rather than a political Hessian who pirates of the rights of the people with his mouth, while walking on them with his feet.

CANDIDACY OF MAN WITHOUT A PARTY

Here then is the candidacy of a man without a party—for by his own statement the Progressive party is nationally dead—a man who has repeatedly declared that the Republican party is not fit to live, who has done his utmost to rob, despoil and destroy it; who has filled the Nation with course abuse of its last President and the last Republican presidential nominee, Mr. Taft; who has publicly, in Chicago, sneered contemptuously at its present candidate, Mr. Hughes—this man seeking to go to the United States Senate as a Republican. Can effrontery more affront?

It would be next to a national calamity to elect Johnson to the United States Senate. His vote, considering the closeness of the Senate, might thwart all the good that Mr. Hughes could do for the people in the way of wise legislation.

SITUATION RESULTS IN ACTION BEING TAKEN

The county Republican Central Committee of San Mateo county observing the gravity of the situation have passed suitable resolutions endorsing Mr. Booth for the Senate. The committee is made up of true and loyal Republicans who desire the success of the party. They urge every member of that organization in the county to vote and work for Mr. Booth. San Mateo county will and must cast its vote for the Los Angeles man. It always has been found in the Republican column and there it will be found when the vote is counted on August 29 with a big majority for Willis H. Booth. The resolution passed by the committee is as follows:

RESOLUTION BY SAN MATEO COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE

"Whereas: As it is incumbent upon every true Republican to use every honest means to place upon the ballot at the coming November election, the name of a true, honest, and a loyal Republican for the office of United States Senator, and

Whereas: Another, who is not a Republican, is endeavoring to secure

said place upon the ballot, now therefore, be it

"Resolved: That the members of San Mateo County Republican Central Committee earnestly indorse that true, honest and loyal Republican, Mr. Willis H. Booth as their candidate for the United States Senate, and we urge every Republican in San Mateo County to go to the polls at the Primary election, August 29th, and cast their vote for Willis H. Booth as the Republican Nominee for the United States Senate."

WHO IS THIS MAN WILLIS H. BOOTH?

Tribute by Estelle Lawton Lindsey Prominent Councilwoman of Los Angeles

"We toilers who know his life and work, appreciate his worth and realize his broad sympathy for his fellow men."

These words were applied to Willis H. Booth, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, by Estelle Lawton Lindsey who was elected a Councilwoman of Los Angeles as a representative of labor and who is known from one end of the State to the other as the uncompromising champion of those who work with their hands.

Mr. Booth is a staunch party man whom every Republican can support with enthusiasm. He will carry out every pledge he makes and he will be an ardent supporter of Mr. Hughes in the Senate. The southern portion of the state is entitled to the senator this year. For thirty years it has been the custom to have one of the two senators come from the south and the other from the north. Inasmuch as Mr. Phelan was elected from San Francisco in 1915, it is but proper that the other senator be chosen from the south this year.

The enemies of Mr. Booth have endeavored to array the labor vote against him but in this attempt they have signally failed for the warmest supporters of Mr. Booth, both in the north and south, are the working men and women.

Willis H. Booth's has been a line of hard work. Born in Winnemucca, Nevada, he was raised in the Mission district of San Francisco, and did odd jobs after school hours. He lived in Los Angeles for a while, and sold newspapers on the streets there. Then his family moved to Berkeley where he worked his way through the University of California. He did not graduate; he couldn't afford to. He left university to help the family by working side by side with his father as a machinist.

Willis H. Booth has founded three machinery concerns: the Western Laundry Machinery Company and the American Woodworking Machine Company of San Francisco, and the Smith Booth Usher Company with headquarters in Los Angeles and branches along the Pacific Coast. He has also founded the Hotpoint electric iron concern, a business of world proportions on Ontario, Cal. Booth is so closely identified with this great concern that many housewives think his name is Willis Hotpoint Booth! There are 700 men and women employed at Ontario in the Hotpoint factory and in nine years of its existence there has never been a single bit of labor trouble. Indeed, it is a happy family the heads of departments living, working and taking their recreation with the employees. This concern had the eight-hour day for women two years before that beneficent provision became law. Everything that pertains to the relations of the employees to their bosses is handled by a committee of nine workmen. There is a co-operative arrangement whereby the employee gets an annual percentage of the earnings over and above his wages.

In the Security Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles which Willis H. Booth created and of which he is vice-president, there is a pension system for employees, and also insurance—when a man dies, his widow gets a year's salary.

It was of these facts that Estelle Lawton Lindsey was thinking when she paid her tribute to Booth.

SUPERVISORS HOLD SHORT MEETING

Colma Tax-payers Granted Another Electric Light. New Bridge for Coastside

The Board of Supervisors met in regular session Monday, August 21st, there being present Jos. M. Francis, presiding, Jas. T. Casey, Wm. H. Brown, John MacBain and C. V. Thompson.

The minutes of the meetings of August 7th and 14th were read and approved.

A petition, signed by A. Selenone and other residents and tax-payers of Colma, was received asking for the installation of an electric light at the corner of A and Clara streets in that town. The request of the petitioners was granted, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Thompson.

A communication was received from the trustees of the Millbrae school, stating that the amount of money needed for the maintenance of the school for the coming year, in addition to that allowed by the state and county would be $800. The communication was ordered filed.

Supervisor Thompson was authorized on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, to install a pump and tank at Pigeon Point to pump water out of the ocean for the purpose of watering the roads in his district.

On motion of Thompson, seconded by Brown, plans and specifications, prepared by Surveyor Neuman, were adopted for a bridge across the San Gregorio Creek, and the clerk was instructed, on motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson, to construct a culvert on the Belmont to Halfmoon Bay road, just west of the town of Belmont, near the J. J. Bullock place.

The engineer was instructed, on motion of Brown, seconded by MacBain, to prepare plans and specifications for two new culverts on the Pugas road, near Reid's school in the Second township.

On motion of Thompson, seconded by Brown, the former was given permission to construct a small bridge across the Pescadero creek, near the Blomquist place.

The following three claims were allowed, on motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson:

James Looney, $66 and $9, for labor on road construction; A. Davis, $148.50, also for road construction work.

On motion of Casey, seconded by MacBain the former was granted permission to purchase 150 feet of 16-inch corrugated iron culvert pipe for use in his district.

At the suggestion of Chairman Francis, Surveyor Neuman was instructed to take up with Contractor John MacReynolds the matter of keeping the header boards intact that are being used in the construction of the new road between the foot of the mountain and Halfmoon Bay.

The board adjourned at 11 o'clock to meet Thursday, August 31 for the purpose of canvassing the results of the primary election to be held next Tuesday.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

FOR PRESIDENT

Charles E. Hughes

FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Charles W. Fairbanks

FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

Willis H. Booth

FOR CONGRESS

E. A. Hayes

FOR SUPERVISOR

John MacBain

A vote for John D. Willard is a vote to send a competent and efficient man to Sacramento to make laws for the state.

Vote for Willis H. Booth for the United States Senate and send an out and out Republican to the upper house of Congress.

Continue E. A. Hayes in Congress. He is doing good work for the district. Keep him in Washington. Let the vote for him next Tuesday be pronounced.

John MacBain has made a good supervisor. Don't change. Continue the work of good roads so auspiciously begun by him.

The Republican party in California is safe and its destiny assured with such leaders as W. H. Crocker and Francis V. Keessling.

Hiram Johnson is not Republican. He is a Progressive. He should not seek the Republican nomination. Defeat his scheme to purloin the nomination by balloting for Willis H. Booth.

Hughes is not concerned with the political aspirations of Governor Hiram W. Johnson, a registered Progressive who is seeking the Republican nomination for United States Senator. The presidential candidate disposed in the following words of the situation Chester Rowell was trying to create in behalf of his friend Johnson: "I come here as the spokesman of the national Republican party. With local differences I have no concern."

Campaigning in San Francisco his "old home town", for two days recently, made Willis H. Booth solid among his many city enthusiasts. Campaigning is hard work but Booth tackles it with gusto. He is a natural "mixer" adaptable, courteous and good humored. Everywhere he makes a most favorable impression. He is equally at home with the banker and the worker in jumper and overalls. With machinists of all sorts he enjoys himself thoroughly, for he was once a machinist himself and talks the language of the craft.

THE COMING ELECTORAL EVENT

On Tuesday next the primary election will be held. Upon the result of that day's voting the line-up of the fall presidential contest will be determined. So that on Tuesday each voter will play his part—a preliminary part, to be sure, but none the less important—in an historical political episode created by this country's position among the nations.

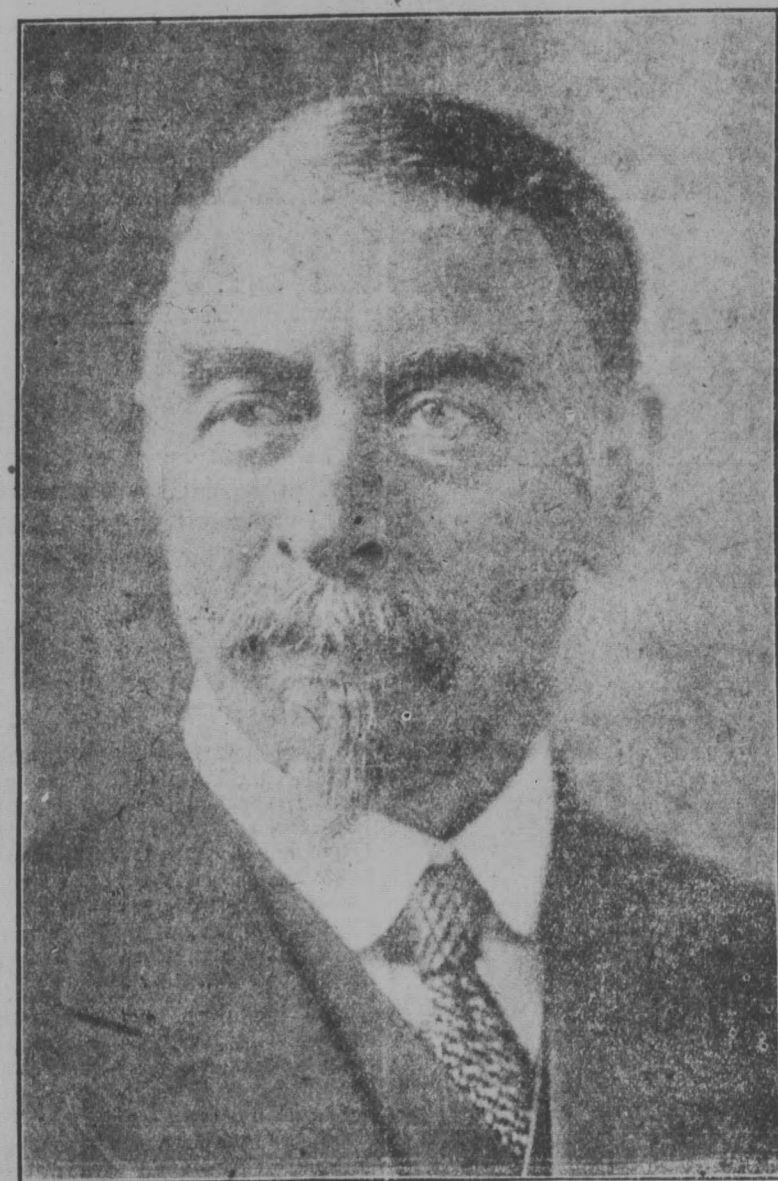

For the time being the political managers rest. The issue is up to the individual.

True to tradition, the Times-Gazette has been doing duty within the Republican ranks. We have worked hand in hand with the regular party—have helped as we could help within our limited sphere, yet all the time realizing the great burden placed upon the standard bearers.

We have felt it an honor to be identified with such people. What more appropriate name than that of W. H. Crocker to feel deep concern in the interests, both political and economic, and as National Committeeman to lead the Republican forces of this State, when the Crockers as a family have been at the very head of such leadership in California for a half-century? What fornia for a half-century? What fighter more bold and sure-footed than Francis V. Keessling, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, in handling the complicated issues of the campaign? What name more entitled to respect than that of U. S. Congressman E. A. Hayes, who is a candidate for re-election from this district? And coming right down home, what squarer man than Supervisor John MacBain of Menlo Park, who again asks your cordial support? These names are merely suggestive but indicate the high character of the Republican following.

As the last hour has practically arrived it now comes to voting. To making a choice of candidates. Let it be a Republican victory from top to bottom.

Congressman E. A. Hayes Receives Splendid Indorsement

CONGRESSMAN E. A. HAYES

The following correspondence is self-explanatory and shows the high esteem in which U. S. Congressman E. A. Hayes of California is held both by his Republican and Democratic colleagues. This is testimony from high sources and should be sufficient evidence to convince all voters that E. A. Hayes should receive their support at the coming election and be returned to the position that he now so ably fills.

FROM HON. CARTER GLASS, Democratic Chairman House Committee on Banking and Currency, written to a Democrat two years ago (1914) but illustrating equally as well today the high regard in which Congressman E. A. Hayes is held by his Democratic colleagues:

"For obvious reasons I would not care to be drawn into the political disputes of a California congressional district. Nevertheless, in response to your inquiry I take leave to say that as between Mr. Hayes, with whose record I am familiar, and any other Republican or so-called Progressive, of whose record I know nothing, I would not hesitate, as a Democrat, to support the former.

"The service of Mr. Hayes on the Banking and Currency Committee has been extremely useful. He has approached every problem in a frank, fearless and non-partisan spirit and was particularly helpful in the matter of the Federal Reserve Act, regarded by many as the most important legislative achievement of the Wilson administration. Regardless of politics, Mr. Hayes thinks for himself to such an extent that I have frequently wondered why he was not a Democrat.

Very truly yours, CARTER GLASS.

FROM HON. JAMES R. MANN, Republican leader of Representatives, Washington, D. C., under date of August 4, 1916, to Hon. William Shipley, Chairman Republican County Central Committee, San Luis Obispo, Cal.:

"Mr. Hayes is one of the ablest members of the House of Representatives. He gives most diligent attention to the work of the House and to his committee work. My estimate of him is probably well shown by the fact that as Republican leader in the House I recommended Mr. Hayes as the ranking Republican on two of the important committees of the House, the committee on Banking and Currency and the committee on Immigration and Naturalization. This is an unusual honor. It is seldom that any minority member of the House secures assignment on two of the important committees, and still more unusual to secure the ranking place of his party on two committees. He has done most able and effective work on both of these committees. Both from adaptability and because of his long continued service in the House, I consider him one of our ablest and most efficient members.

Yours very sincerely,

JAMES R. MANN.

LA HONDA NEWS

Peter Faber, wife and four children of Palo Alto have pitched their tent near Cavalli's and are to remain here for two weeks.

Mr. Oxtoby and wife are guests of Soars' Hotel. Mr. Oxtoby is the well known moving picture man. Both are delighted with La Honda.

Edward Steinberg, a former La Honda boy who was injured in a mine in Virginia City on July 4th, is slowly recovering. In a letter to a friend here this week he states that he underwent an operation recently that was quite successful. He will be confined to his bed for about six weeks longer. The mine owners are doing everything possible for him.

Mrs. Von Suson and daughter, Mrs. Brown, are still enjoying the beauties of La Honda.

All dance goers are looking to the big social to be given in Weeks' Hall here on Saturday evening, September 2. Stefank orchestra is to furnish catchy music. Admission, gentlemen 50 cents, ladies 25 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartley, their son, Edgar and Joseph Cull of Menlo Park are still in camp and enjoying the balmy breezes. Edgar Bartley and Joe Cull have already killed the limit in deer.

The Glennans have broken camp and returned to Redwood City after camping here all summer.

Edmond Mayer of Oakland is here having taken charge of his father's ranch.

The Hillebrands are still camping here but expect to return to their home at Woodside early next week. The annual outing of the Knights of Columbus of San Mateo Council No. 1346 was held here last Sunday, August 20th. It was without doubt the most successful affair ever taken place under the auspices of that organization. About seven hundred knights and their guests enjoyed the outing. Eleven auto buses and other motor machines brought them from Mayfield, Palo Alto, Menlo Park, Redwood City, San Mateo, South San Francisco, San Bruno and Daly City. The first installment of machines began arriving at 9 o'clock and was not until 11 o'clock that the last one appeared upon the scene of the day's pleasure. The day was an ideal one for the outing, no wind or fog to cause discomfort and it was not too warm. It was a perfect day. At 11 o'clock mass was celebrated under the shadow of the tall redwoods by Father Adriano of Halfmoon Bay. The improvised altar was appropriately decorated with ferns and palm leaves. Father Adriano was eloquent in referring to the inspiring surroundings. He referred to the towering redwoods as his temple and the bright blue sky above as his canopy and the matchless songs of the birds and the murmuring of the near-by brook as the sweet music of his choir. The splendid sermon was listened to with interest. After the services all enjoyed a luncheon under the tall trees. Professor Harry W. Maloney of Palo Alto had charge of the athletic exercises and kept things moving until the evening shadows began to settle over the beautiful La Honda valley, when all feeling that they had enjoyed the day as the guests of the Knights of Columbus took their seats in the various large auto buses and enjoyed a ride home over the new La Honda road, the finest in the state. The committee in charge of the successful and enjoyable outing was as follows: George Tinney, Palo Alto; Jas. T. O'Keefe, Menlo Park; Joseph Bahir and Myles Sharkey, Redwood City; George Bogue, San Mateo; Edward Doherty, Burlingame; Judge Cunningham, South San Francisco; J. J. Jones, San Bruno.

DRAINAGE PLAN FOR HIGHLANDS

Flood Conditions Near Highway to be Systematically Relieved

George H. Irving and R. F. Chilcott appeared before the board of town trustees Monday evening in favor of some action to avoid a recurrence of flood conditions along the highway during the winter months. Their interest was supported by communications from the Chamber of Commerce and the Redwood Highlands Improvement Club and a numerously signed petition of citizens and taxpayers living near Broadway and El Camino Real. Trustee Tuchen, chairman of the street committee, has had for some time under consideration a plan of leading a part of the surface drainage over new routes, thus relieving the situation at Broadway and El Camino Real. Mr. Irving wished the scope of these plans enlarged to include all of the Highlands and especially that portion near the foot of James street where conditions have been especially bad.

Superintendent of Streets Dickey addressing the board explained that the natural drainage of that district had been closed by the Highlands promoters, rendering useless several culverts that the city had put in to drain the water. The need of a large intake to a culvert in the highway between Broadway and James street was also brought up. As the matter was best understood by Trustee Tuchen and Superintendent of Streets Dickey it was left in their hands to report at the next meeting of the board which will be held Monday evening.

Notice of the 19th annual convention of the League of California Municipalities to be held at Visalia October 10th to 15th was received. No delegates were selected yet it was understood that the city would be represented at the meetings.

Members of the city council and their wives will be special guests at the opening of Sequoia Theatre Tuesday evening. An invitation to be present was accepted by Mayor Sampson who will have part in the program.

The application of Lee Clark who conducted the bar in the Redwood City House for a rebate on his liquor license for the unexpired time from August first was laid over until next meeting as was the application of L. Lewis, the new proprietor of the resort.

Upon the suggestion of Chairman Sampson an electrically controlled clock keeping standard time will be installed in the office of the city clerk.

Street Superintendent Dickey was instructed to prepare plans for the laying out and planting of the grounds about the city hall in a public park. It is the plan of the board to lay out walks and lawns and plant trees and shrubs during the coming winter months.

A balance in the park fund will be used by the street department in cleaning sidewalks in the main part of town of tarweed and mustard which has grown up on vacant lots.

Trustee Merrill advanced a plan of incorporating an estimate in the coming budget for the clearing of sidewalks and next year reimburse property owners who did their own clearing and presented a certificate from the street superintendent of having done the work when they paid their taxes. This would do away with a regularly occurring nuisance.
